

Rejoice in the Lord

The Book of Philippians

Philippians 4:2-9

I. Handling Conflict (2-3)

a. Euodia and Syntyche

i. What do we know of these two women?

1. They were in conflict because of different _____.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
2. They had a _____ of service.
3. Paul cared about them _____ and desired the restoration of their relationship.
4. They were _____.

ii. How would you like this to be your legacy?

b. True Companion

i. Who was this companion?

- 1.
2. Syzygos – A Greek word used here taken as a _____.
3. The Philippian _____.
- 4.

ii. What was the task asked of this companion?

II. Peace (4-9)

a. The opposite of _____.

b. The source is _____

- i. Verse 7 - The _____ of _____
- ii. Verse 9 - The _____ of _____

c. It is _____ on our beliefs, decisions, and actions.

i. Rejoicing

1.

2.

3. Recognition of God for who He is, His _____, _____, and _____.

4. The starting point of peace.

ii. Gentleness (1 Tim. 3:3; Titus 3:2; James 3:17)

1. To whom?

2. Why?

a. The Lord is _____.

b. Mat. 18:21-35

c. Col. 4:5-6

iii. Not _____

iv. Prayer, supplication, requests

v. Meditating on things that are:

1. True

2. Noble

3. Just

4. Lovely

5. Good Report

6. Virtuous

7. Praiseworthy

d. Results:

i. You will have peace which you _____ fully understand.

ii. Your _____ will be guarded by it.

iii. Your _____ will be guarded by it.

iv. God, Himself, will be with _____.